Street Talk is an approved NZTA Defensive Driving Course run by experienced driving instructor Ray Clark. This course reduces the restricted licence period by 6 months for the under 25 driver, and by 3 months for those over 25.

Street Talk has been revised to include skills that will help both learner and Restricted Licence driver pass the new Driving Tests.

Any licence holder can now do this course.

The course teaches you how to recognise hazards on the roads and how to avoid dangerous situations that lead to accidents. It is an intensive and interactive course that comprises of 4 x two hour evening sessions in a classroom followed by a one on one practical on-road session.

For more information or to book your place in this course, please contact Highland Park Community House (09) 534 5584 or email info@hpapcommunityhouses.org.nz
